

You will come and come back again!

The exceptional reception conditioned at a very nice place and the flavors of traditional French cuisine makes this Bistrot a place where you will feel great. Robert Dalle, the friendly owner of this lovely restaurant, located at the foot of the Eiffel Tower is very proud to have continued the legacy of his parents Mr. Remy and Ms. Raymonde Dalle.

This Bistrot has an excellent atmosphere with great music. The waiters make sure that you receive the best service and the three chefs make dishes that have a worldwide reputation in French cuisine; including the dish of the day with lots of choices that you will taste and enjoy !!

We can not forget about the traditional and international dishes in our menu such as Bourgogne snails, Champ de Mars salad with "foie gras" (smoked goose liver), smoked duck, ox beef Charolais, or farm chicken served with fresh homemade golden fries, apple pie, and of course the famous dessert creme brulee "creme brulee".

The drink menu has a lot of choices as well. Les Côte rôti, Saint-Emilion, Sauternes, Brouilly *, etc for the French wine lovers and not to mention the well known Champagne, with the best known brands worldwide.

It is not surprising to find here faithful clientele and tourists, this great environment entirely renovated in 2012 with a great and typically Parisian atmosphere.

For spring and summer you can be comfortable on the large terrace of "Le Champ de Mars".

We have thought on everything for your comfort, installing small metal hooks attached to each table and bar to hold your handbag or your personal belongings.

Alone or with a book, for a continental breakfast or just to make a simple pause for coffee or an appetizer between colleagues and friends, lunch or dinner, or a a romantic dinner with your boyfriend /girlfriend, or for a drink after a night out in the theater .... You will enjoy a warm welcome.

Open daily from 07:00 to 23:00 hours (weekends until 23:30 pm).

Something extra ... The kitchen is open permanently, so you can taste at all times the dish of your choice!!
